Missing Migrants Project

Over the years, 30% more refugees have died in the mediteranean than the rest of the world combined.

Out[128]:

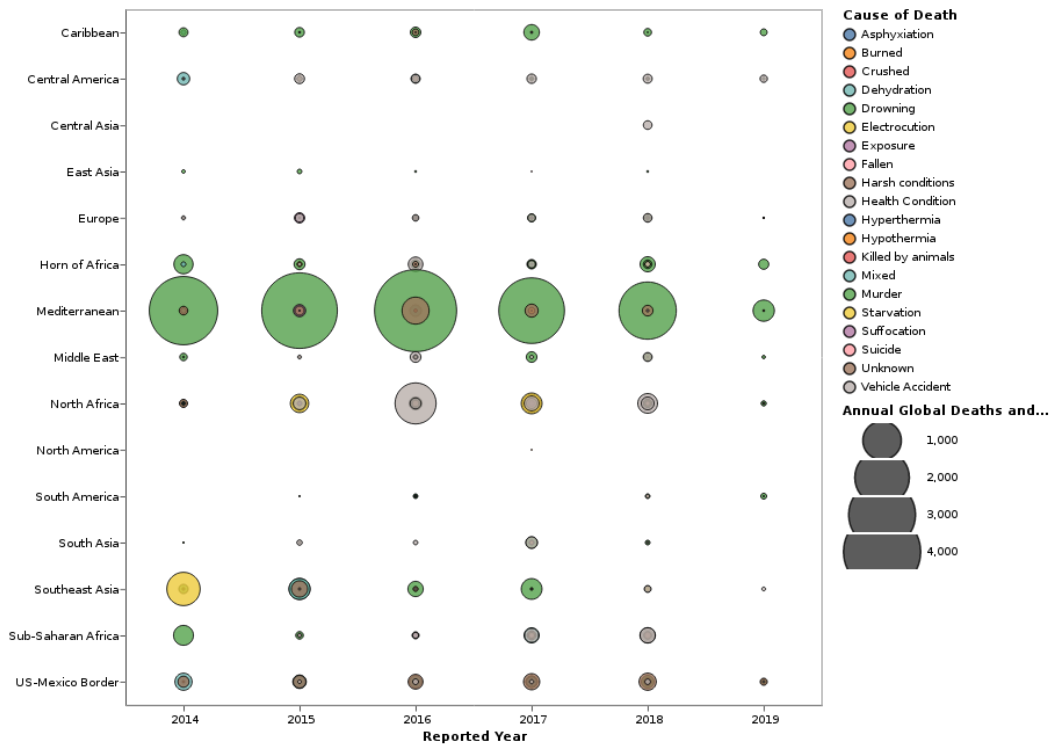

It's responsible for ~5x the next highest country

Out[129]:

People Drown a lot, unless you're trying to immigrate from Central America to the US, where your dead body will just be discovered and people will not know why you died

Out[130]:

If you're going to try and emmigrate, your safest bet is to take the Eastern Route, between Turkey and Greece.

Avoid going from Libya to Italy or Malta, even though that's where most people will land.

Out[131]:

Try to avoid the warmer months
